Applicant uses the phrase "at least one of . . . and . . ." in certain of the claims. In all instances, the phrase "at least one of . . . and . . ." means only one item from the list, or any combination of items in the list.

Applicant respectfully submits that the phrase having the form "at least one of A and B", where each of A and B is either a term or a phrase, the phrase "at least one of A and B" means "only A, only B, or A and B". In instances in which three or more terms and/or phrases are present in an "at least one of . . . and . . ." phrase, Applicant provides the following example definitions: the phrase "at least one of A, B, and C" means "only A, only B, only C, or any combination of A, B, and C"; the phrase "at least one of A, B, C, and D" means "only A, only B, only C, only D, or any combination of A, B, C, and D"; the phrase "at least one of A, B, C, D, and E" means "only A, only B, only C, only D, only E, or any combination of A, B, C, D, and E", and so on.

For example, in Claim 13, the phrase "at least one of a credit card account, a debit card account, a charge card account, a "smart" card account, and a currency card account" means "only a credit card account, only a debit card account, only a charge card account, only a "smart" card account, only a currency card account, or any combination of a credit card account, a debit card account, a charge card account, a "smart" card account, and a currency card account".
